CSI Membership Classification

Scroll to page 2 to see current Chapter Membership count

Beginning on July 1, 2011, CSI Membership fell into the following 3 basic classifications plus 4 sub-classifications:

MEMBERSHIP CLASSIFICATIONS

Professional Member: A technically experience individual whose primary function is to author, manage, or communicate building information; to create, interpret, or use construction documents; or to educate, support, or assist the construction industry and who has at least two years experience in this work.

Emerging Professional Member: An individual who is a prospective Professional Member but who has less than three years experience.

Student Member: An individual who is a full time student enrolled in an undergraduate or graduate program in a construction industry curriculum in an educational institution.

Sub-classifications

Retired Member: A Professional Member who is no longer engaged in income-producing activities, has reached the age of 65 years, has been a member in good standing in the Institute for the past five consecutive years and has been recommended for this change by their Chapter. Note: The Institute Secretary can waive the age requirement upon appropriate justification.

Emeritus Member: A Professional Member who has been a member in good standing in the Institute for the past 15 consecutive years, has reached the age of 70 years and has been recommended for this change by their chapter.

Lifetime Member: A member who is a former Institute President and automatically gets this classification at the end of the term as President

Distinguished Member: CSI's most prestigious Award given by vote of the Institute Board to recognize long-term contributions to the design/construction industry.

Other Membership Information

Home vs. Non-home Chapter Members: Each Chapter affiliated member declares a “Home Chapter” at the time of joining and at each Renewal. This is normally the Chapter the Member most closely relates or the Chapter where meeting are normally attended. Members may belong to multiple Chapters and the additional Chapters are referred to as “Non-home Chapters”.

Maine Chapter Membership

As of January 3, 2016, the Maine Chapter had a total of 74 members, only 69 of which considered Maine as their "Home Chapter. Please note that beginning July 1, 2011, the terms Industry and Associate Members no longer exist and these classifications were changed to Professional. Intermediate Members became Emerging Professional Members at the same time.
